CAMP

LOST CANYON
williams, arizona

Lost Canyon, in Williams, Arizona is ideally located just a few hours from Phoenix. Campers and leaders from across the Southwest can easily access this camp. Perhaps the best hour of every day at Lost Canyon is Club. Through the intentional use of music, appropriate humor and thought-provoking messages, club is a crucial element that leads to a camper's opportunity to consider a relationship with Christ. Young Life's desire is that kids' hearts will be captivated by the message of hope that can be found in a personal relationship with Christ.

- Lost Canyon is located at 7,000 feet in the beautiful Northern Arizona high country just 30 miles west of Flagstaff and is nestled in a canyon, easily accessible from major interstates.
- The property was originally homesteaded in the early 1900's by the Rekos family who built and for decades lived in "The Stone House" which now serves as the Stone House Coffee Shop for campers and leaders.
- Various Arizona churches operated a youth camp on the site for more than 30 years and ultimately prayers were answered to have Kingdom purposes continue with Young Life's acquisition in 1997. The Williams' City Council immediately gave unanimous approval with one unique stipulation; the Council wanted Young Life to start a YL Club at Williams High School. The next summer Young Life volunteer leaders from Williams took 18 Williams High School kids to Woodleaf.
- In the spring of 2000 work began on Lost Canyon's construction started with the dining hall, the largest free-span log structure in North America. The first Young Life summer camp was held in the summer of 2001.
